Express Yourself with a Mandala

These colorful mandalas were created by the students in a geometry course (MATH 3403: Geometric Structures) at Oklahoma State University during the spring of 1999. As you can see from their beautiful work, they are a very imaginative group of students most of whom are planning to be elementary teachers when they graduate.

Prepared by John Wolfe and Janie Kirchmer

Department of Mathematics
Oklahoma State University
Stillwater, OK 74078
wolfe@math.okstate.edu

May 1999
Tyler Courtner

Mercy Morrical
( Woman Flower )
Joni Prodanov

Jason Milacek