Correction to "Multiplicity conjectures"

On the second page of our survey paper on the multiplicity conjectures, we remark that the lower bound from the Taylor resolution is equal to the lower bound from the minimal resolution. This is incorrect; the bound from the Taylor resolution can be lower. We thank Michael Goff for pointing out a counterexample and apologize for our carelessness. (This does not affect any of the results or arguments in the paper.)