Straight lines on curved surfaces:
Exploring Geometry Beyond Our Usual Plane

Cynthia Francisco

In this hands-on session, we will explore how we can begin to think about geometry on surfaces other than our usual plane. Participants will explore the surface of a sphere to see how some fundamental concepts of geometry translate to a new surface. We will look briefly at models of hyperbolic planes as well.